Irish Céilí Dancing

Irish céilí (pronounced Kaylee) dancing is the native group dancing of Ireland and is danced to traditional Irish music. Some of our céilí dances can be traced back to the 1500's. Most céilí dances are danced to reels or jigs. Some are danced to single jigs and some sections of The Three Tunes are danced to hornpipes.

Céilí dances can have various formations including two couples (Four Hand Reel and Humours of Bandon), three couples (Duke Reel), four couples (Morris Reel, Eight Hand Jig etc.), six couples (Lannigan's Ball), or eight couples (Sixteen Hand Reel) in a group. Lines of two opposite two (Walls of Limerick, Antrim Reel etc), three opposite three (Fairy Reel, Harvest Time Jig etc.) or four opposite four (Siege of Ennis). Each line would progress to meet a new line of dancers and repeat the same movements with them.

Céilí dancing are a great team building experience – every team member equally contributes to the team's success. And when a team is successful, they can go far!

Suitable for children 7 years and upwards.

953420 - Emotions in Color Art Class -LaVonda McCullough

LaVonda McCullough is offering Creative Art in Emotions class exploring the connection between feelings and art. Students will gain knowledge of watercolor washes, acrylics and abstract techniques to create artwork that truly reflects you. This class is all about having fun, being creative and expressing yourself without judgment.

All Art supplies are included in the cost of the class.

Emotions in Color is a class where we translate feelings into art! Using watercolor, acrylics and abstract techniques, you'll learn to express yourself creatively and authentically.

What will we do?

Explore Emotions: We'll talk about different feelings - joy, sadness, anger, peace - and how they feel inside.

Color & Feeling: Discover how colors can represent emotions and learn to choose palettes that express what you're feeling.

Abstract Art Fun: We'll experiment with non-representational art - letting go of "realistic" painting and focusing on shapes, lines, and colors to communicate feelings. Think splatters, blends, and bold brushstrokes!

Watercolor Wonders: Learn basic watercolor techniques like washes, layering, and blending to create dreamy, ethereal effects.

Acrylic Adventures: Get hands-on with acrylics, exploring texture, layering, and creating bold, dynamic pieces.

No Pressure, Just Expression: This class is all about having fun, being creative, and expressing yourself without judgment!
